

RE CURRICULUM PROGRESSION

Gayton Primary School

Year Group	Autumn Friendship and Respect	Spring Truthfulness and Compassion	Summer Perseverance and Courage
Reception	EYFS Understanding of the world Talk about members of their immediate family and community.	EYFS Understanding of the world Name and describe people who are familiar to them.	EYFS Understanding of the world Recognise that people have different beliefs and celebrate special times in different ways.
1 Christianity	Christianity Big Picture: God as the Father with Jesus as his son. He created and cares for the world and expects us to do the same (people and planet!) Words and Beyond: The Christmas Story Drivers: Environment, Personal Development Level of understanding: Human beings, including groups of religious people, tell stories that help them grapple with the big questions of life. Many of these stories are well-known as they have been handed down over generations.	Christianity Influence, Community, Culture and Power: The church building, the community of people and church roles. Visit to a church. All around us there is evidence of the influence of religions/worldviews on our community. Religion does not influence everyone's life in the same way.	Christianity Continuity, Change and Diversity: How do Christians follow Jesus – bible, prayer, stories, singing, individual and collective worship. Words and Beyond: Baptism and Marriage Drivers: Personal Development We are surrounded by distinctive things that are important to people. Some of these are called 'precious', 'sacred' or 'holy'. People belonging to the same religion/worldview may have different 'holy' or important things and express their religion/worldview in different ways.
2 Hinduism	Christianity A Good Life: Everyone is important and of equal value. Love and forgiveness. Hinduism: A Good Life: Respect for other people and for all living things. Influence, Community, Culture and Power: Importance of family. Words and Beyond: Diwali – festival of light Drivers: Personal Development	Christianity Words and Beyond: Palm Sunday – Easter Sunday Drivers: Personal Development People often give words different meanings when they try to express what is most important to them. Many people use symbols to express important ideas. We need to	Christianity: Making sense of Life's Experiences: Jesus healed people – Mark 2, Luke 5:18 Hinduism: Making Sense of Life's Experiences: Rama's exile and return. The importance of Krishna, Rama and Shiva Drivers: Personal Development Some people have amazing experiences that make them ask big questions about life. Others find deep

	Most religions/ worldviews introduce children to stories from the lives of exemplary people as examples of the qualities and characteristics they might try to achieve. They also teach about specific actions that are right and wrong and about good and bad attitudes.	interpret words and symbols to find out what they mean.	spiritual meaning in everyday matters. There are many stories about experiences and encounters that have changed lives.
3 Sikhism	Christianity Words and Beyond: Advent – getting ready. Sikhism: A Good Life: Equality – welcome all people of all religions Words and Beyond: Festival of Guru Nanak Gurparab - lights Drivers: Personal Development, Democracy People often express their feelings and beliefs through art, music, poetry, stories, drama and physical movement - creating, observing and performing.	Christianity Words and Beyond: Lent and Holy Week Big Picture: Jesus is God’s son and suffered, died and rose again- he is still alive and special to Christians. Sikhism Influence, Community, Culture and Power: Gudwara – a place for family worship. A Good Life: Equality – how people treat each other, share, eat together and worship in the Gurdwara and welcome people of all races and religions. Drivers: Personal Development, Democracy. Humans tell different stories to convey important teachings and these stories often form part of longer narratives. Groups of religious and non- religious people tell stories, which reflect the different ways in which they view the world.	Christianity Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Parable of the Good Samaritan. Sikhism Words and Beyond: Gurpurbs – celebration of birthday of Guru Gobid Singh (Vaisakhi – New Year) – also mention celebration of Guru Nanak. Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Life of Guru Nanak – his perseverance to find a deeper knowledge. Drivers: Personal Development, Democracy Recognise that some people have experiences that they can explain to others that have given them a slightly different view.
4 Buddhism	Christianity A Good Life: Love your neighbour as yourself Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Jesus’ disciples, followers and friends. Christmas – Good King Wenceslas Buddhism A Good Life: Practice of Dhamma – Being kind and sympathetic to others (inc animals) and giving generously.	Christianity Continuity, Change and Diversity: Personal events – Baptism – communion – confirmation. Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Miracles – Paralysed man of Capernaum – Luke 5:17-26, Matthew 9:1-8, Mark 2:1-12 Bhuddism Big Picture: Symbolism of the Bhudda Image	Christianity Words and Beyond: Pentecost – the disciples find courage. Buddhism: Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Stories about Gotama Buddha which show how suffering can end and years in the forest, Influence, Community, Culture and Power: living by Buddha’s teachings.

	Drivers: Personal Development, Environment Most religions/ worldviews have stories about people who set a moral example.	A Good Life: Practice of Dhamma to alleviate suffering –be sympathetic to all living things and give generously of time food and abilities. Lead by example – The Dalai Lama. The name ‘religion’ or ‘worldview’ is commonly given to systems of belief, practices and values, which share common features that make sense when thought of as linked to each other.	Drivers: Personal Development People often express their feelings and beliefs through art, music, poetry, stories, drama and physical movement - creating, observing and performing. These creative forms of expression play important roles in most religions and cultures.
5 Islam	Christianity A Good Life: Principle of Grace (John 13:34 15:12) Idea that God loves us no matter how flawed we are. Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Christmas Story – St Nicholas (and Santa Claus?) Spirit of Christmas is the magic – loving and giving, not just receiving. Islam: A Good Life: Respect for teachers Influence, Community, Culture and Power: respect for guests and visitors Driver: Personal Development Most religions/ worldviews have stories about people who set a moral example. Religions/ worldviews provide guidance on how to live a good life.	Christianity Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Temptation in the desert. Challenges for the disciples in Holy Week. Islam Influence, Community, Culture and Power: The importance of honesty. How the family prepare for and celebrate festivals. A Good Life: Ramadan and Eid. A Good Life: Feeding the poor and needy Driver: Personal Development Some people have amazing, puzzling or mysterious experiences that they may explain as an encounter with a power above and beyond this may have changed their life in some way.	Islam Continuity, Change and Diversity: 5 Pillars of Islam. Influence, Community, Culture and Power: The importance of manners. Messengers of Allah and the Qur’an Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Books of guidance – the Qur’an, Hadith. Big Picture: The Qur’an reveals the truth about Allah. Role Models – Nobel Peace Prize winners – Tawakkul Karmen, Shirin Ebadi (Iranian Human Rights Actviist) Driver: Personal Development, Democracy The name ‘religion’ or ‘worldview’ is commonly given to systems of belief, practices and values, which share common features that make sense when thought of as linked to each other. Each religion/worldview is made up of groups of people who may believe different things and practice in different ways. Many communities around the world are influenced at several levels by their traditional religions/worldviews. In some communities, one religion/worldview is influential; other communities are influenced by many different religions and worldviews living alongside each other.

6 Judaism and Humanism	Christianity A Good Life: The Ten Commandments Words and Beyond: Christmas Story – Football in the trenches Carol Service Judaism Good Life: Link with Christianity with ten commandments. Words and Beyond: Festival – Hanukkah, festival of lights.10 – 18th Dec 2020 Driver: Personal Development, Democracy Most religions/ worldviews have stories about people who set a moral example. Religions/ worldviews provide guidance on how to live a good life. There are different ideas about why people should aim to live a good life.	Christianity A Good Life: the Sermon on the Mount – The Beatitudes. Humanism Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Karl Popper – truth through rationalism. Big Picture: Science and Rationalism as the way to understand the universe. Evolution. Adapt and change when faced with new evidence. A Good Life: Accepting individual responsibility to reason about our actions. Importance of reason, empathy and compassion and respect for others when deciding how to act. Golden Rule – treat others as you would like them to treat you. Drivers: Personal Development, Democracy Most religions/ worldviews have stories about people who set a moral example. Religions/ worldviews provide guidance on how to live a good life. There are different ideas about why people should aim to live a good life and agreement and disagreement over virtues and qualities, what is right and wrong - between and within groups.	Christianity Making Sense of Life’s Experiences: Serving others – The work of the Salvation Army Influence, Community, Culture and Power: Italian Mother Superior Madre Maria Agnes Tribbioli – sheltered 2 Jewish children from Nazi raid despite danger to herself Hinduism The Big Picture: Ghandi as an example leading life governed by the belief that all human beings are equal before God. MORE MODERN EXAMPLES of PEOPLE OF ALL FAITHS SHOWING COURAGE AND COMPASSION AT https://www.peninsuladailynews.com/life/issues-of-faith-people-of-all-faiths-show-compassion/ Drivers: Personal Development, Democracy Some people have amazing, puzzling or mysterious experiences that they may explain as an encounter with a power above, beyond or within the material world, and which they may claim has given them new insights into life. Many communities around the world are influenced at several levels by their traditional religions/worldviews. In some communities, one religion/worldview is influential; other communities are influenced by many different religions and worldviews living alongside each other. In some communities, religions/worldviews have little influence apart from among their followers.